May 13, 2018 7th Sunday of Easter

This Sunday's Gospel is known as the "priestly prayer" of Jesus. The entire passage is Jesus entrusting us to the Father. "When I was with them I protected them? I guarded them," Jesus says. He asks his Father, "Keep them in your name." In this prayer of Jesus, we see the paradoxical tension of our life as Christians in the world. He anticipates struggle for the believer. He describes it in strong words, words that could even appear frightening to the believer. "I gave them your word, and the world hated them." Not only that, but with our eyes on eternal life, we "do not belong to the world." And yet in the midst of those realities, Jesus doesn't take us out of the world. On the contrary, "as you sent me into the world, so I sent them into the world."

Christians live in this tension daily. The call of Jesus often defies nice, neat categories. We uphold justice as virtue yet are invited to love our enemies. We offer gifts and generous hospitality to others while being reminded of the value of temperance. We are called to teach the truth of right and wrong without losing sight of the beam in our own eye. It can be difficult to find the balance in our own lives, and a Church that preaches moral perfection can easily fall under scrutiny when it falls short.

In the midst of these complications, Jesus offers a message of hope. He is well aware of the contradictions into which he sends us, and his Father will equip us accordingly. "Consecrate them in truth." "Keep them from the evil one." Jesus does not abandon us to the tensions of our time but remains near at hand by the grace alive in his Church.

CATECHESIS OF GOOD SHEPHERD

The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is a Montessori based religious formation for children. It seeks to create and facilitate a sacred, "hands-on" space for children called an atrium, in which both the children and the catechists can hear, ponder, and celebrate the most essential mysteries of the Christian faith as revealed in the scriptures and the liturgy. This methodology came to St. Joseph in 2017 and has been received with joy by the children. Being with the children in the atrium each week allows the adult glimpses into the mystery of God and His abundant love. Are you being called to share this journey?

Coming Summer 2018/2019 – Level 1 CGS Formation

The Level One Formation course consists of 90 hours of study and prepares the catechist to work with children, ages 3 to 6. The catechist will become grounded in both theory and praxis in order to develop and facilitate a level one atrium in a parish setting. The foundation of the course is the parable of the Good Shepherd and the Covenant Relationship, which will enhance the participant's personal relationship with Christ our Savior.

This formation requires a deep commitment on the part of the catechist; it is life giving and can be life changing. Course dates will take place over two summers, with practical Atrium experiences between the summer sessions: June 21 – 24 & August 3-5 of 2018 and again from June 13-16 & July 12-14, 2019. Please contact Beate Buescher, 210-889-9869 or beateb@stjhc.church.
